

CONTENTS

1. Volume I — Logica Et Disciplinae Practicae Ac Poeticae

(Organon, Rhetorica, Poetica, Politica)

This section brings together Aristotle's logical corpus (Organon) with works on rhetoric, poetry, and politics, covering methods of reasoning, persuasion, artistic production, and civic life.

2. Volume II — Ethica Et Philosophia Theoretica De Natura Et Principiis

(Ethica, Naturalis Auscultatio, De Caelo, De Generatione Et Corruptione, Metaphysica)

This group combines ethical treatises with major works of theoretical philosophy, addressing moral virtue, natural change, cosmology, generation and corruption, and the study of first principles in the Metaphysica.

3. Volume III — Philosophia Naturalis De Rebus Animatis Et Psychophysilogia (Cum Dubiis Et Spuriis)

(De Animalibus, De Partibus Animalium, De Generatione Animalium, De Anima, De Sensu Et Sensibili, De Memoria Et Reminiscentia, De Somno Et Vigilia, De Insomniis, De Divinatione Per Somnum, De Motu Animalium, De Longitudine Et Brevitate Vitae, De Iuventute Et Senectute, De Vita Et Morte, Meteorologicorum Libri Quattuor, De Mundo Ad Alexandrum, De Coloribus, De Audibilibus, De Spiritu, De Xenophane, De Melisso, De Gorgia)

This corpus covers Aristotle's natural philosophy of living beings, including zoology, biology, the science of the soul, sensation, memory, sleep, life and death, and meteorological phenomena, together with traditionally associated doubtful or spurious works preserved by the manuscript tradition.

4. Volume IV — Tractatus Naturales Minores Et Technici (Problemata Et Scripta Applicata)

(Physiognomonica, De Plantis, Ventorum Situs Et Appellationes, De Insecabilibus Lineis, Mechanica, De Mirabilibus Auscultationibus, Problemata (Sectiones XLI))

This section consists of minor natural-scientific and technical treatises, reflecting applied inquiry into plants, mechanics, winds, marvels, and problem-based investigation characteristic of the Problemata tradition.

5. Volume V (1) — Appendices: Fragmenta, Scholia Et Index Aristotelicus

(Aristotelis Qui Ferebantur Librorum Fragmenta, Scholiorum In Aristotelem Supplementum, Index Aristotelicus)

This part contains fragments of works attributed to Aristotle, supplementary scholia and marginal commentary, and a general index to the Aristotelian corpus.

6. Volume V (2) — Instrumenta Scientifica: Index Nominum Et Rerum

(Index Nominum Et Rerum)

This is the scholarly reference apparatus, providing a comprehensive index of names and subjects for navigation and systematic research across the corpus.
